

Arrest made in Cordes case Tuesday

Written by Samuel Allen

Tuesday, 14 October 2008 13:58

www.sxmislantime.com

PHILIPSBURG - The police have now arrested the husband of Lita Lynn Cordes in the Dawn Beach area this morning.

Public prosecutor Taco Stein confirmed the arrest stating that it was time for the arrest to take place.

He would not confirm what brought about the arrest at this stage of the investigation, he only venture to say that he is a suspect in the disappearance of Lita Lynn Cordes.

Recently the Prosecutor office announced that the investigation would now be carried out by the French authority. 49 year old Leta Lynn Cordes has been missing since Friday, January 11, 2008. According to her husband, Frank Cordes, who was the last person to see her, she walked to the Westin hotel to go gambling.

That was the last anyone has heard or seen from Leta Lynn Cordes.

PHOTO - Entrance to the Cordes home where arrest took place on Tuesday Morning.