

*Jakadrien Turner is finally home safe

We are all so very excited to finally have (Jakadrien Turner) Kay-Kay home safe in the Great United States of America!!

Kay-Kay's mother sent a text message last night thanking everyone for their efforts, and was over joyed to have her daughter back home safely and sleeping in her own bed! What a wonderful experience to see, and be a part of this family reuniting! Please keep the family lifted up in prayer, as they begin the long healing process in this next chapter of their lives.

Thank you Detective Wingo (Dallas Police Department) and all the Team Members who have worked so hard on trying to find Kay-Kay, and never losing faith, that she would be found and returned to her family!!
