Kristen went missing from her place of employment located at the 3600 block of Hwy 157 and Trinity Blvd in Eules, Texas. After having a brief confrontation with the manager, Kristen was asked to leave early, and the manager called her a cab. A co-worker walked with Kristen to the door, carrying her bag. As they got to the door, the co-worker held out Kristen's bag to give it to her, when a customer walked up, took Kristen's bag from the co-worker and walked out behind Kristen. Another co-worker received a call from the cab driver announcing that the cab was near the destination. The co-worker didn't see Kristen in the club, and assumed she was waiting outside. When the cab driver arrived and didn't see anyone outside, he called inside, and the co-worker told him Kristen was not in the club. The cab registered a "no fare" and left. The co worker then went outside to look for Kristen, but she could not find her. Three hours after Kristen disappeared, the customer who had taken Kristen's bag, and walked her out, returned to pay his unpaid tab. This customer later denied the entire situation.
