Lisa was last seen by neighbors near her home in the 3300 block of Truxillo Drive in Dallas on 06/05/10. Lisa disappeared without taking any of her personal belongings, including her purse and pets. It is especially concerning to note that days after Lisa went missing many of Lisa's personal possessions were located in a dumpster at a local convenience store. According to friends, Lisa would have never thrown these items away. The items that were located included Lisa's birth certificate, her beloved brother's death certificate, old photographs and other personal items. Lisa's friends say this is absolutely out of character for their fun and loving friend to just disappear, as she has always answered her cell phone and would promptly reply to her emails.
