FORT WORTH — Friends of a man who has been missing since Jan. 13 fanned out into the community Saturday to pass out flyers and ask for help locating Kyle Marshall Morton.

Morton, 49, is thought to be driving a 2004 tan Kia with Texas license plates Y41YKP. He may be headed to Arizona, according to the Texas Department of Public Safety's missing persons bulletin, but his father said the family has no idea where he might be.

"He has never disappeared like this before," said his father, Murray Morton. "We've hired a private detective to help us find him."

Someone reported to Fort Worth police that they thought they saw Kyle Morton on Tuesday morning walking on Mistletoe Drive in the hospital district area, but they have not had any reports of him since.

Morton is a financial planner who works with his father at Morton Financial Services in Fort Worth. Morton could possibly need medical attention, according to a relative.

Morton was last seen wearing a brown checkered wool sweater, sport coat, beige dress shirt and beige dress pants. Morton is described as being about 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighing 160 pounds. He has blue eyes and brown hair.

Anyone who has seen Morton or has any knowledge of his whereabouts is asked to call 911.
